

Found Poem Rubric

Criteria	Unsatisfactory	Satisfactory	Exceptional
Completeness	The students uses less than 20 words to complete the found poem	The student uses 20-35 words to complete the found poem	The student uses more than 35 words to complete the found poem
Organization of ideas	The student made minimal connections and/or the connections did not make sense or seem complete.	The student made many connections, but some connections did not make sense. There were minimal connections made.	The student made multiple connections between multiple themes. Ideas and concepts were well organized.
Content	The student used many of the words from the words bank, but also used 4 or more of their own.	The student used some of the vocabulary words from the word bank and 2-3 of his or her own.	All of the student's words came from the word bank. There was no attempt to use his or her own.
Connections	The student made no connections between the novel and contemporary events	The student made connections; however, failed to clearly define them.	The student made great connections between the novel and contemporary events appropriately.